“ Horace Sherlock posted a condolence Condolences to the family on the passing of my non-biological brother. My own family will miss him dearly none moreso than my Grandson and his Godson ,Max Sherlock in Sydney ,Australia. No doubt fate played a part as I'm sure he would wish to have lived much longer if he could but something perversely pure called him and now we mourn him. He can now languish in paradise in the bosom of Angels with a "first for the day" in hand.. We experienced over the 70 years since we knew each other exquisite, exciting,and daring moments in our lives as if the flesh was immortal.I suppose we could be considered virtuous in that unattractive vices were avoided. So many stories to tell but we will reminisce when we meet again for a "second for the day" R. I. P. my brother.

“ Sean Evans posted a condolence Patrick was a good friend. Patrick, Winston and I had so much fun, going fishing, hanging around his house in Flushing. I will miss him. It was our treat to host Patrick and Jan Marie for the Olympics in Atlanta. We were so glad he was here for Chelsea's wedding. Sending prayers for healing and peace for all his family.

“ Pauline Watson posted a condolence I'm deeply saddened by the passing of Patrick. My deep and heartfelt sympathy to the grieving family.
Death brings pain that time can only heal, No words could ease what you truly feel; but with God his joy is eternally sealed. So cherish his memories that death can't even steal
