“ Michelle De Gioia Travisano posted a condolence Dear Angie family,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I have a few memories with Angie and think of her occasionally. Angie help me get into politics at a young age. I helped her with here win in the run for Freeport Mayor 1st term. I worked with her closely. I have a picture of me and her with the others in the Republuc. Party. I can't remember who was Nassau. County governor. He was in it, too. I remember Angie as a hard working lady with good traditional values.
Then I found out, Angie was Patrick Cullins mom. Patrick and I went to school together. Fun fact. Angie will be remembered by me as a tough lady. God. Bless her and may she, Be the Mayor Of Angels above.
Rest in peace.
Yours truly,
Michelle De Gioia-Travisano

“ Lori Pelliccia posted a condolence My deepest sympathy to Angie's family. Dick and Angie spent many a time around my parent's kitchen table back in the 70's - early 80's drinking my Dad's home made wine and talking politics. My parents, Joseph and Ethel Pelliccia, were very involved with the Republican Party and were friends with Dick and Angie for many years. My Dad also worked with Dick at the Oceanside Pool. May they all Rest in Peace. God Bless.
