“ Bernadette Burke posted a condolence My heart grieves for the loss of my darling cousin, Antoinette Provosty. I will always remember your angelic beauty and presence. I cannot believe that you are gone. I was suppose to call you this week to give you details about the family reunion for the Saunder's sister's family at Virginia Beach this summer. I wish I could hug your neck one more time. You will be dearly missed. R.I.P. beautiful angel. My deepest condolences for the Tyson and Provosty families.
Eternal love from Bernadette Burke and family in Georgia

“ Dominick Burke posted a condolence For years I've tried to find all of my cousins who were descendants of Aunt Mildred Provosty. At 9:06pm on March 27, 2018, I found this obituary. I am at a loss for words and although I wasn't close to Antoinette or any of her sisters, my heart mourns. Aunt Millie was the sister of my grandmother, Annie Saunders. I am the son of Fred Burke, Jr. I will try to attend tomorrow's services but with very little notice it will be very challenging as I live in PA. I would love for any of my cousins to give me a call on my mobile at (845) 282-9596
