

Audrey Jewel Ballard

May 13, 1945 - November 13, 2025

Audrey Ballard was born in Harlem, New York on May 13, 1935, the daughter of the late Eddie Harris and Jessie Mae Harris formerly of Iamers South Carolina.

She attended the public schools in Queens, N.Y. and graduated from Jamaica High School in June 1953. She worked for the Bell System Telephone Company as a Clerk.

In 1955 she met Arthur Ballard from Suffolk Virginia. They met in Queens, N.Y. They married on November 4th 1956 after she left the Bell Systems Telephone Company. This Union produced 2 sons, Glen and Scott Ballard. They moved to Freeport N.Y. in August of 1972.

Later on Audrey was a teller at various banks in in Freeport and Lynbrook, N.Y. starting in 1968. Then in 1974 she became the manager of Clay Arnold wine & liquors in Roosevelt N.Y.

In 1980 Audrey went back to Bell Atlantic (Verizon) working as a manager. She retired in 1994. Audrey enjoyed interior decorating & design in her house, baking and crafts. Later she started following baseball. The New York Yankees were her favorite team.

Audrey was endowed with a wonderful sense of humor and the ability to connect with people given her outgoing personality. Her favorite colors were pink, lavender and turquoise. She had a classy sense of style and carried herself as such.

Audrey and her son Glen moved from Freeport N.Y. to McDonough Georgia in pursuit of a new life in November 2008. They were joined by Scott in 2016 who lives nearby.

She leaves behind her sons Glen, Scott and stepson Dennis Ballard, wife Pamela, Step grand-daughters Amber & Bria. She leaves her sister Jessie Coleman, also of McDonough Georgia, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives & friends.

After living a long happy and fruitful life. Audreys physical being left us on Thursday November 13th 2025. She was 90 years old.

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 22. 10:00 AM - 11:30 AM (ET)

Hungerford & Clark Funeral Home
110 Pine St.
Freeport, NY 11520

Prayers & Reflections

DEC 22. 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM (ET)

Hungerford & Clark Funeral Home
110 Pine St.
Freeport, NY 11520

Burial

DEC 22. 1:00 PM (ET)

Greenfield Cemetery
650 Nassau Rd.
Uniondale, NY 11553