“ Robyn Merrill posted a condolence Jamie and Frank.....I am so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful grandmother. May the memories that you made throughout the years comfort you during this hard time. Always remember that those we love may leave us physically, but live forever in our hearts. Please know I am praying for you and your family and love you both.

“ Paula Martello Murphy lit a candle Rest in Peace Aunt Millie. Thank you for all your love and support, kind words, your loving kind heart I will always remember you with deep affection. I will miss talking with you, but will speak to you now with my prayers. I am praying for your grandchildren, and the many relatives, friends you touched over your long life. Must have been a great reunion seeing your husband, daughter, parents, siblings, give them our love too. Until we see each other again. God Bless you.
