“ Bill Ford posted a condolence Rich, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family and would like to express our sincere condolences and hope that you and your family have the opportunity to celebrate the blessing of everything that Cathleen brought to your extended family and friends lives.
I regret I will not be able to join the wake or service as I am heading to Germany on a flight mid Wednesday for the place I work for a week. Hope to have the opportunity to express my condolences and best wishes for your family in person in the near future.
