“ Donna posted a condolence My sweet, kind, gentle cousin- you will never know how much I will miss you. "Death is not an ending, but a symbol of movement along the path upon which we are traveling. As it may be painful to lose contact with the physical aspect of one we love, the Spirit can never be lost. We have been and always will be a part of each other."
Until we meet again, I will keep you forever in my heart and memories.
I love you Chris.

“ Jennifer Mary Rykert-Dean posted a symbolic gesture Dear Christopher,
I am grateful that God gave me such a caring good brother in-law. One way you showed how much you cared was with your patience with your nephews and nieces. I'll never forget how you would assist Zach when he put on his magic shows for hours on end! And don't forget the dogs! You were Lana's and Stella's favorite uncle. No one can forget how devoted you were caring for Mom, Dad and Kevin. You always did your best and I know that wasn't an easy thing for you sometimes because of the challenges you had to deal with. You'll always be in our hearts. Love you. xo Jen

“ Pauline & Anthony posted a symbolic gesture Dear Christopher,
Another limb has fallen from our family tree. You will be kept safe in my heart along with so many others I hold dear. Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be. A resting place along the road to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way, We are all meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay. Our destination is a place for greater than we know. For some, the the journey's quicker, for some, the journey;s slow, And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward. And find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord. Loved you always Chris-you were always so sweet, gentle and kind. You will surely be missed. Until we meet again dear nephew- Love, Aunt Pauline & Uncle Tony
