“ Janice & Donald Ruger lit a candle God took you so young. I have such fond memories of Debbie as we met when our sons were born. Always neighbors but until we brought our boys home and realized we were in the hospital at the same time. Watching our boys starting school together and playing. As they grew so did our friendship. You also working with Donald at Otto's. Her family meant the world to her and was very proud of her children. The last time we saw you was a visit after Hurricane Sandy and both of our families got together. You will be missed Debbie. Will keep Jessie and the kids in my prayers. Keep that beautiful smile to warm there hearts. Till we all meet again.

“ Tom Augusto posted a condolence I have many wonderful memories of Debbie...from when Jesse and Debbie first met and were dating...their wedding, the birth of Danielle and Joseph, the many family birthday celebrations, holiday celebrations, backyard barbeques...many good times together. One thing I'll always remember about Debbie is that she genuinely cared about you and how your life was going....she took the time to talk with you and expressed her love for you and your concerns. Truly, Debbie is a wonderful woman gone too soon.....She will be missed.
