“ John Schreiber posted a condolence Dennis was a preschooler in my class when he was 4 years old. I pulled out the loose leaf with all my old class pictures this week and found Dennis sitting for a class picture. He's seated on the end with his hands clasped like most of the others. I remember a sweet, kind child, perhaps a bit shy. He was a delightful little boy and I know I'll never forget him.

“ Shelley Galfin lit a candle I'm Chris' aunt. I met Dennis last year at a wrestling tournament he came to to watch Chris' son compete. We sat together all day. We had a blast... Lots of laughs. He was so sweet and such a good guy. He left a lasting impression on me and touched my heart. May he rest in Peace.
