“ Dino’s son (Chris) is my best friend. I have known the Mangione family for about 40 years. I grew up with them. Dino was a huge influence on them, and me. He taught them that hard work is important. He along with Eileen taught them that family was even more important. As a close friend I saw all of this, and I learned it also. As a teenager he also taught Chris some inappropriate phrases and sayings (half Italian, half made up) that I also learned. Which means it is important to laugh. He was also a huge Rangers fan, and Chris is a Rangers fan. That is how I became a Rangers fan. I think I am still learning what that means. I just never realized how much of an impact he had on my life until now. Thank you Dino. Rest in peace, and God bless the Mangione family.
