Mother's are the foundation of everyone's family. Their loss from our lives is always traumatic. Please take solace in knowing that she sits with God, her family and other angels, and will continue to watch over and guide you forever. Her spirit and energy will always live in in your hearts and souls . You will know it and feel it throughout your life. Remember all the good times, wisdom, support, love and laughter she provided. That was her legacy to you. God bless her, and all her family.
