“ East 2nd Street, Cow Meadow Park, bike riding, crabbing, salami sandwiches, Carvel, kickball in the circle, swimming / holding our breath in the pool, monopoly for hours, the best childhood memories with you. Rest in peace my friend, my little Dotty.

LA

Summer time brings back so many memories of you, of our childhood. Swimming until we were "wrinkled", playing with my pop's little red boat, playing on the "street" until the lights came on. Annoying Theresa, Rich & Donna. Walking blind George and visiting Emma. Our OHR uniforms. Too much to ever forget. I still don't understand what happened. I never will. I will see you one day, until then send a sign.

“ My little Dotty. My best childhood friend. Carefree days crabbing, playing kick ball, running through the sprinklers, swimming in the pool, eating salami sandwiches with Carvel flying saucers as dessert. Riding bikes to Cow Meadow Park. My heart is shattered. Love and miss you, Laurie
