“ To Matthew, the Gertler and Razukiewicz families, and all the friends of Elizabeth Gertler, it was an honor and privilege to altar serve her funeral Mass and to pray with each of you. Even though I did not know Elizabeth personally, the news breaks my heart. I pray you find peace and consolation in the days, weeks, months, and years ahead. God bless you.

“ A wonderful friend and work wife to my best friend - though the years I had the privilege of calling you my friend as well. I will miss our Taylor Swift debates. Your talent and dedication to your work was nothing short of admirable. You will be missed immensely. All of my love to Matt, your family, your friends, and every person that your beautiful light touched in life. You will be missed beyond words.

“ Elizabeth, you were always there for Joey and our family over all these years. You were vibrant and in control, and somehow managed to handle everything, seemingly effortlessly. My heart breaks for your family and friends, and for everyone at ACDS who will sorely miss you. Thank you for everything. You are forever in our prayers.

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Elizabeth's husband and family. I didn't know her all that well but she took such good care of my brother and all of his friends at ACDS. This is a true loss for so many of these wonderful people. May her memory, kindness, and acceptance of others live on through those whose lives she touched.
