“ Deb DeVita posted a condolence I knew Frances as my favorite Aunt, married to my Mother's older brother. Uncle Eddie and Aunt Frances, Claudia and Jennifer were a happy presence in my childhood. We enjoyed Christmas, Thanksgiving, birthdays and especially Easter together, which was celebrated at their Whaley Street home. Frances was a wonderful cook and baker. When I moved to San Francisco in 1978 Frances never forgot me, would send me her wonderful pound cake for my birthday, cookies, chocolate or an amaryllis plant for Christmas. She was very close to my sister Christine who also moved to California, and we both spoke to her often on the telephone. She was very kind to Christine's children.

She was a kind, generous, understanding woman who lived through a lot of sadness. The accidental death of her husband at age 50 was unbelievable. It was so difficult to see her suffer with arthritic pain, vertigo and hearing loss. But she kept her ironic sense of humor and keep going. I am happy that she is at peace.

I am honored and so lucky to have had her in my life. I will cherish her memory.

Helen and Jennifer please forgive me for not being there. My prayers and thoughts are with you.

Love, Debby
