“ There aren't too many people like Fran, she was always there for me. Always lending her hand and offering help when needed the most. I'm still going to miss her laugh and love more than I care to say, but Fran is in a better place now, she'll always be my Angel 🌹

“ My grandma T, was full of life. Classy, thoughtful, honest and Loyal. If she called you a friend, you could count on her, if she called you family she would go to the ends of the earth for you. She enjoyed helping others and she was tough as they come. A devoted catholic, who always made sure to put the lord at the center of her life. Grandma will be dearly missed but her impact on this world will continue for generations to come.

“ I was so glad to be able to connect again with Fran in our later years. I will miss her very much. We shared so many happy memories together from days long gone. We were able to share Christmas Eves and other special days together most recently, and I will always cherish the memory of her radiant smile and robust sense of humor and wonderful zest for life and gift for helping others. May angels sing you to your rest, dear Fran, love always, Violet

“ One of the most Amazing people I have ever met, she treated everyone with kindness. She was smart and never minded sharing her life stories with us. I was blessed to be counted amongst the people she called "friends". My family was lucky that we spent so much time with her, that we celebrated so many happy events with her and that we had each other when things were not so great. Rest easy my friend. you will be missed greatly.
