“ Eugene posted a symbolic gesture I met Frankie in November 2006 when my family and I moved into the neighborhood. Frankie and his brother were the first neighbors to welcome us with such great love. That love never changed. Frankie's kindness always blossom in his smile and thoughtfulness. You will always be loved Frankie my beloved and dear friend. You will surely be missed. From, Eugene Lloyd and Family.

“ Louise Fazzino posted a condolence I have no words Frankie was the sweetest man I know! He treated me like family always and always looked out for me! I will cherish every memory I have of hanging out on the porch for endless hours in the summer and him having a blast at my wedding. I will forever miss you and love you Frankie! My heart is with Mama Elaine and Joey. ❤️❤️
Love, Louise and Joe Fazzino

“ LynnAnn posted a condolence I met Frankie in 1998 - went to see one of his shows and we became fast friends such a great personality , kindhearted and full of energy up on that stage. We stayed in touch throughout the years on Facebook, loved all of his posts when he cooked dinners for his family especially, I will always remember you Frankie and that awesome smile of yours
You will continue to Rock On in the hearts of all of the people you touched with your kindness and friendship and I'm sure you will continue Rockin Out up there Love Your Friend LynnAnn
