

Glenn M. Becker

March 20, 1957 - October 10, 2023

Glenn Becker, on October 10, 2023. Beloved husband of Robert Randall; dear brother of Eric (Janeice); dear brother-in-law of Kathy (Bob), Doreen (Tom), Rosaline (Tom) and Shawn (Laura). Devoted uncle to many nieces and nephews.

Glenn will be fondly remembered for his sense of humor, his quick wit and his knack for delivering his perfectly-timed catch phrase, "Check, please!"

Cremation private. Memorial gathering to be held at a later date

Tribute Wall

SM

“ What a handsome, funny, smart guy. Will miss him terribly.

Sheila McElhearn - October 15, 2023 at 10:54 AM

RC

“ I have many good memories of Glenn. I shared an office with him For many years so there were many laughs shared. He was a one of a kind, quick wited guy who like me could make himself the butt of the joke. I miss him dearly already, he always made me smile. His "check please" and his not playing those "reindeer games" at work will be remembered always. I love you Glenn. Save a seat for me.

Richard cohen - October 10, 2023 at 06:27 PM

DD

His photo is in the yearbook of East Meadow high school 1975, the yearbook is downstairs in the car.....

David Dowsett - November 01, 2025 at 12:09 AM

BN

“ I was honored to be Uncle Glenn's best man at his wedding. At the reception, I shared a music lyric that is aptly much like an Irish drinking song (what I feel was Uncle Glenn's spirit music): "so you were born, and that's a good day. Someday you'll die, and that's a shame. But somewhere in the between, was a life of which we all dream. And nothing and no one will ever take that away." I said it in celebration on that day and though I mourn his loss today, I will always remember the "somewhere in between;" moments like his wedding day that will stay with me forever.

Bobby Notheis - October 10, 2023 at 05:11 PM