“ Kathy & Harry McManus lit a candle Life without you will never be the same. You had a gift of making others laugh with your antics and wicked humor. You also had a heart filled with love expressed by your caring and generous spirit. You were our best man and our best friend. We miss you and look forward to hearing you sing and play guitar again one day. Until we meet again may you know we will always love you and may you entertain the troops of angels in your new digs. We are “Helplessly Hoping” that our “Mr Spaceman” and we, will “Come Together” “With a Little Help From My Friends.” In the meantime we will do our best to “Act Naturally” knowing “All Things Must Pass” and we will have to “Carry That Weight.” We will always be “Glad All Over” that we were lucky to hear you play “Here Comes The Sun” and “Sun King”. You will always be “Here, There and Everywhere” and now as “Free As a Bird”. “Ob La Di, Ob La Da” but we wish you could “Tell Me Why” it couldn’t have been “Some Other ‘Guy’ and not “This Boy”. “The Long and Winding Road” to our “Blackbird”, we will just have to “Let It Be” until we get our own “Ticket to Ride”. “ In My Life” you will always be in our “Golden Slumbers”. “All Together Now” we love you always!

“ Caitlyn McManus lit a candle So many amazing memories... those evenings together with our families by the fire, singing Beatles and CSNY songs while you played guitar. Play Blackbird!! And family vacations! I'll never forget riding with you, Kate, and Colleen up to the poconos in winter, and watching my family in the Aerostar sliding down the icy road as we watched helplessly! I was little and so scared but you calmed me down... Love you and miss you Guy. It hurts, but I know you are at peace and watching over your family.
