“ My Name is William John Sarubbi, grandson of Mae VonGlahn And William John VonGlahn. And son of Geraldine Veronica Sarubbi. Daughter of Mae and William VonGlahn.

I am not exactly sure but I think I first met Harry and Hilda when I was six years old. I am now 65years old .

When we were up on the mountain we always wanted to visit Harry and Hilda and feed their horses and help them with some chores. I'm sure I'm speaking for all of my brothers. We love Harry and Hilda, We grew up with them.

They say, you can Count your best friends on only one hand. And I have three. I count Harry and Hilda obviously as one.

I can say this, at least I know Harry is finally back with Hilda. That makes me happy, because they were so happy together. I miss Hilda and now I miss Harry and Hilda. And hopefully when it's my time to go I too can see Harry and Hilda again.

All my prayers and condolences go to Harry and Hilda and their family and friends.

Peace be with you in this time of grief.

William John Sarubbi 🙏🏻✝️
