“ The belle family and the Callender family goes back many years and Hatton was always such a kind. loving and caring friend. My last memory of Hatton was him singing Karaoke songs during a party at the beginning of this year, just singing one song after the next and having a great time, not complaining nor showing any signs of poor health. Our love and deepest condolences to Beverley, Shelly, Nikko and the entire Callender family. This is a tremendous loss to all of us and we will miss Hatton immensely.

*All our love,

“ Hattan was a wonderful person & I can't imagine what his exceptionally devoted wife must be feeling but I hope that she realizes how many people are there to support her through this most difficult of times. This world is poorer without Hattan & I know that he is now resting in the peace he so richly deserves. Goodbye my friend, Malcolm misses you.

“ Well said Selwyn. Hattan would excel at every sport. He was my captain and brought out the best from this very average sportsman. I showed respect and gratitude by calling him "Skipper". He remained extremely popular. Perhaps because he cared so deeply about other people and could put others at ease regardless of their circumstances and regardless of his own circumstances. He was a warrior. It must have taken tremendous courage to fight illness with such grace for so long. I feel very privileged to call the man my friend. Ann and I will miss him deeply. Best wishes to Beverly, his children and siblings.

“ Hattan was very popular and very well liked among our classmates at Harrison College in Barbados 🇧🇧. He was a very goid cricket player and fast bowler. Our paths diverged after my family emigrated to the US just prior to my 14th birthday. Despite leaving his presence so long ago, my memories and fondness of Hattan are as strong as if they were yesterday. May God bless his spirit and find a comfortable resting place for him. *To every one of your friends, you were an epitome of selflessness. There was never a day you sat with anyone and didn't look for something good to offer them. You lived life to the fullest; not for wanton pleasure, but to leave bits of yourself in many. It is an uncommon privilege to be counted among the beneficiaries of your many blessings. Rest in peace.
