“Victoria Edwards posted a condolence Hedy Edwards was a very special person in my life, and in many others. She was the mother of my brother, and was a friend to many. She was one of the greatest women that I had ever met, and she always will be. She was kind, giving, loving, and she would give you the shirt off of her back if you asked. She was always very kind to me, and I wish that I could've said goodbye, and I also wish that I could've thanked her for all of the things that she did for me and my family. She used to be married to my dad, but they stayed friends after their divorce. I am so proud to have known her. She helped make my dad the man that he is today. My brother, her son, has two beautiful baby boys, and one on the way, but unfortunately she never got to meet them, but I'm sure that she is and always will be looking down on them, on Joey, and on the rest of us. She loved him so much, and it's a shame that she had to go so soon, but she will ALWAYS be in my heart. She left a place in everyone's heart that she met, she had that effect on everyone, even when they were sad, she found a way to make them happy. She had the greatest smile, and so does Joey. I miss her so much, but I know that she is up there in Heaven watching over us, and that she is at peace, that she is happy. I remember learning how to swim in her pool, her fat cat Tic Tac, and her sick one Smokey. I remember the parties that she had, and trying goose for the first time at Christmas, even though I was tricked into it, it was fun seeing everyone laugh after the fact. I have so many memories of Hedy Edwards, but I wish that I could've made more. I was pretty young when she passed, but I will never forget the memories that I have of her, and I will cherish them forever. There aren't enough words in the world to describe how much I miss her. I called her Aunt Hedy because she used to be married for my dad, even though she's not my aunt. I think that I was raised calling her that because just calling her by her first name was too insignificant for all of the things that she did for me. Aunts are family, and so was she. She had a beautiful mural in her room, that thankfully wasn't ruined by Hurricane Irene and Sandy. Those storms ruined her house, but she was so strong through the whole thing. She lost the pool that I learned how to swim in. She had to take out the carpet, and half of the paint on the walls was stained by water. Through the whole thing, she was strong, and never gave up. She was very hands-on. She could always get things done on her own, but whenever I helped her with things, she always made the fun. Before she passed, she used to give me and my sister these Advent calendars, some had lego pieces, chocolate eggs, candy, etc. I remember always wanting to go in the next nights' compartment and take the treat, but I remember her telling me that doing that takes the fun out of having one per night until Christmas. I miss doing those every Christmas. Hedy Edwards was a great woman, who will never be forgotten. I will always love her.
