“ My condolences to the Razzano Family on the passing of dear Helen, the most lovely woman who I had the pleasure to know for most of my life. Growing up in the neighborhood, I first knew her as Michael, Janice, and Kenny's mom. As an adult, she became a friend as we talked about experiences working for the Village in the Purchasing Department, or our faith life in Our Holy Redeemer. She seldom accepted an offered ride home, preferring to walk or ride her bicycle, which surely helped her live a long life. Such a kind and gentle soul, I know she is now with our Lord and Savior. Rest in peace, Helen. I remember you fondly and always will.

“ Mrs. Razzano was a beautiful woman, loved spending time in the Razzano house with Janice. Seeing the big red van always meant the Razzano's were on the way. Lots of sleep overs with chocolate chip pancakes and swimming in the canal the next day. My mom enjoyed spending time with Helen in her last years.

“ I am Helen Razzano's granddaughter, Elvira. As we've said previously, our family would like to send a special thank you to the staff at Sunrise Senior Living, North Lynbrook for their care and compassion in the final years of Helen's life. They have gone above and beyond for her and we hope they know that will always be grateful to them.

“ We were very fortunate to be welcomed onto Gordon Place by Helen who became not just a neighbor but a friend. Her warm and beautiful smile were overshadowed only by her vibrant spirit. Always on the move, we welcomed the opportunity to talk if we were lucky enough to catch her walking, on her bike or swimming in the canal. She was a lovely woman who will certainly be missed.

“ Helen was a most dearest neighbor to us. Adventurous, involved, and vibrant. You never when you would pass her riding her bicycle or bump into her at a community meeting. Helen was a true light of Freeport. Gordon Place will never be the same. Rest in Peace beautiful Helen,

“ Helen Razzano was a sweet and caring person. She welcomed everyone into her home. There was always something delicious cooking (and she was always trying to feed me). Her house was like my second home. She could always be seen around the neighborhood – whether she was swimming up and down the canals, or riding her bike. She had a big smile and a big heart. She will be missed.

I met Helen in 1979 when I moved into my house across the street. I knew her as a ball of energy - constantly walking (with her backpack on), biking & swimming in the canal. My dogs knew her too - always had dog biscuits in her pocket for an impromptu meeting. She will be missed.
