“ Diane Clements posted a condolence I remember Janet walking into my brother Jim’s backyard. Every head turned as she was stunning and charmingly oblivious. She saw my infant son Brendan on my lap and just swooned over him, cooing and adoring him. It’s no surprise that she had so many children of her own. When a big hearted woman like Janet goes, a tremendous void is left. May Jesus fill that void with His love and comfort. Praying for you all.
