“ Donna Gibiser posted a condolence Dearest Andy, Rita & family, While we never meet your Mom, we feel like we know her. Through you talking about her and tell us stories of her and your family. She must have been a very special person, because Andy you are a very loving, caring, gentle man. This doesn't just happen by chance. Our mothers are a big influence on us, so we can only assume that this is why you are the way you are. Rita you have always talked kindly about your mother-in-law and how special she was to you. This is a gift having a mother-in-law that we truly love and enjoy. You and your family were blessed with great memories of you "Mom". So when you are sad and are missing her try to think of a special time you had with her. Nothing will ever take that away. Please accept our condolences and know that you and your family are in our prayers. May God bless you all. Love Donna & Michael

“ Maria G. DeGennaro posted a condolence My sincerest condolences and deepest regret in learning about the death of the beloved Jean Desiderio on July 7th, 2015.

Jean was an amazing woman, human being, client, dear friend, mother, wife and grand-mother. I have known Jean for over 22 years and I have grown over the years to love her tremendously; she was always kind, caring and concerned about me and me and my family. I looked at Jean as my "third" grandmother and a dear friend. I will miss her beautiful eyes, her beautiful smile and her warmth and her loving nature.

To the family of Jean Desiderio, especially to her Children; Andy Desiderio and Geraldine Muscara - you were fortunate as you already know to have had an amazing woman as your Mother; and for having her in your lives for such a very long time. Your Mom was very special and I know how much she loved each of you and how much you both loved her.

To her grandchildren, I know she loved each of you very much and I know you will miss her every day. You had the best grandmother. :) May God keep her soul in peace and in eternal happiness.

With Love & Affection, Maria G. DeGennaro

“ *Peggy Miller posted a condolence Dear Geri,
I am so sorry for your loss; my heart aches for you. I hardly knew your mom, but every time I saw her she was smiling, laughing and so full of life. I remember her on the bus when we went to the taping of that show in the Queens park; (Too bad I can't remember the name of the host or the show, but I know he was Australian.) she was the star of the bus. I'm sure you have lots of wonderful memories. I do know that your wonderful personality is a gift from your mom, and she will live on in your children and grandchildren. What a blessing she was to you all,
Peggy*
