“ Laura Jones - Cle Elum lit a candle So very sorry to hear this sad news. Jeremy lived at my house for several years while working to be the best at Swiftwater Cellars. We adored the weekends that Sophia came to stay. He was a very good father and they were very close. We were good friends. Rest in Peace Jeremy.

“ Amanda, Jim, Lyla & Shelby posted a condolence The memories of us playing as kids, laughing, fighting, building forts, Christmas & the memories of us as adults, friends, PJ, the last roller coaster we went on in Colorado, how much you loved my children, the Mets & the Giants, our talks; these will stay with me forever. My life is changed forever. I'm glad for the time we had, all of it; the good & the bad. You were my first friend, my best friend, older brother, my protector. I knew you were always there for me. Now you live in my heart & are another guardian angel in my life. I will miss you with all my being & will always love you. -Mandy

“ Jacqueline Buda posted a condolence Dearest Jeremy. May you R.I.P. for all eternity. You where one of the nicest people I ever met. At our prom you helped me during a panic attack as we were stuck in a elevator. Will never forget that. I hope you are at peace. I pray for your family. Until we meet again. I hope we do.
