

Jerri Quibell

November 14, 1950 - June 3, 2025

Genevieve (Jerri) Quibell 11/14/1950 - 6/3/2025

Genevieve (Jerri) Quibell passed away peacefully at 6pm on Tuesday, June 3rd, 2025 after a short but intense battle with cancer.

Jerri was born in Brooklyn, New York. As a young woman, she became a Licensed Practical Nurse and worked at Nassau County Medical Center in the early years of her career on Long Island.

She and her partner Phil Fortuna were the proud and successful owners of Long Island Checker Cab Company serving residents of Long Island for 33 years with multiple offices throughout Nassau and Suffolk County.

Jerri's generosity and dedication to Freeport and its community was limitless. She was a Past President and Director of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce, at which time she had donated the huge Christmas tree at The Canon Triangle to the Village of Freeport. Jerri also served on the Board of Directors for Hi Hello Daycare center in Freeport for many years, as well as the Advisory Council for the Salvation Army, among others.

She is survived by her only child, Karl Thilesen, and her Grandchildren Lily and Harrison Thilesen, as well as cousins, nieces and nephews.

Jerri will be greatly missed by All who were lucky enough to consider her family or their friend.

Tribute Wall

SL

“ Jerri was a beautiful person, both in and out. I will miss her giving spirit, especially her help and cheerfulness at the annual Chowder Contest!!

Susan Lyons

susan lyons - June 10, 2025 at 02:52 PM

IJ

“ 4 files added to the tribute wall

ilona Jagnow - June 06, 2025 at 03:18 PM