

Josefa Gonzalez

April 23, 2020

"Doña Josefa," as she was called by family and friends, passed away on April 23rd, 2020 in a Long Island hospital at age 84. Ms. Gonzalez was born on May 8th, 1935 in Dominican Republic, where she worked as a teacher. She also served as a midwife, helping to bring many lives into the world. Later, Josefa immigrated to the U.S. with her four children. She was a vibrant person who loved music, dancing, and had a great sense of humor. She made a living as a seamstress, then as a clothing factory owner. Josefa will most be remembered for her generosity, as she dedicated most of her life to giving to those whom she thought were most in need. She was loved by many. Josefa is survived by two daughters, one son-in-law, eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and a vast line of relatives and friends. Doña Josefa will be dearly missed. May she rest in peace.

Tribute Wall

EA

“ Eva Arias posted a condolence I never going to forget how much you love your family and I will be missing you so much . I will have you in my mind and heart forever. Rest in peace amen.

Eva Arias - May 08, 2020 at 12:00 AM

LE

“ Lovely Epic posted a condolence My tia was full of optimism and life ..may God welcome her as one of my many angels.

Lovely Epic - May 08, 2020 at 12:00 AM

“ The family of Josefa Gonzalez uploaded a photo

May 07, 2020 at 12:00 AM

DM

“ Domingo Martinez lit a candle Perhaps the most kind hearted person I will ever have the honor of knowing. She was always in good spirits and always made people laugh, and eat. Yes, eat. she had a perpetual habit of feeding anyone that visited her home. May the lord have a great place for her and may she rest in peace

Domingo Martinez - May 07, 2020 at 12:00 AM