“ To My Dear Sister MADELEINE: I will miss You and our talks. Especially when we would visit and spend such good times together we were so looking forward to seeing you in October. Both Theresa and myself were wishing we had you in our lives a few more years. We know you could have you had such a strong will to live. We loved you and will miss you Frank and Theresa💕💕

Dear Aunt MADELEINE, I will miss you very much. I fondly remember all of our Gatherings at your beautiful home over the years. I will miss picking up the phone and just giving you a call to say hello. I enjoyed our conversations and laughing about different things together. I vividly remember our last conversation telling you I finally moved. You were so happy for me. Our last conversation I remember telling you what a strong woman you were and that it ran in the family! Until we meet again. All my love, Michele
