“ with tears in my eyes and sadness in my heart I write these words. Madrina you entered into my life and showed me love and light, you have held me up through the roughest times in my life, as well as making me laugh till tears came out my eyes. I will carry our good times and you in my heart always. I will miss you and till I see you again. I love you bendicion. Ahijada forever 💕💕 Lilly

“ Her smile is what I remember most. It lit her face and made everyone around her happy. She was a protective and loving mom, her family was always who made her smile, her doggies were loved beyond words. Her love, respect and depth was within everything she believed in. She left a big place in my heart and respect of my family. Continue to pray for all those you held dear.

Forever grateful for all we shared 💕💕
