“ My most favorite memory of this sweet soft spoken woman was at her grandson Cagney’s wedding. The band started to play Sweet Caroline and she jumped up and came over to our table where Peggy’s childhood friends were seated and she grabbed our hands to join her in a big circle on the dance floor because this was her ‘family’ song. We were honored to be considered family and sang our hearts out. From that day forward, whenever I hear that song, I think of her and that very special moment. It makes me smile every single time.
Hugs to Peg and the entire family. She will be missed. XO, Susan Bradley
