

Mary Hannan

November 13, 1955 - November 11, 2022

Mary Hannan was received into the arms of her Savior on November 11, 2022. She was widely known for her sweet and loving nature. Mary always had a smile for everyone. She was that person who was sure to send you a card for your birthday, anniversary, or in times of trouble. Mary always wanted to know how you were doing, and was very interested in the lives of her siblings, nieces, nephews, and their children as well. Her primary goal in life was to live in God's grace, and to care for others. She is our precious angel, and remains in our hearts forever. Mary is survived by her siblings who love her dearly: Grace (Joseph), Edward, Jeanne, Thomas (Deborah), Diane (Alex), Linda (Nicholas) and Christopher (Stephanie), as well as many nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

Loved Mary. She and others from the Hannan family were a great help to me when my husband was ill. I will always be grateful to her for her eagerness to help. Jane Gilroy
