

Mary Ann Rohrbach

January 22, 2018

MaryAnn Elizabeth (Ryan) Rohrbach, age 95, passed away (peacefully) on January 22, 2018 at Winthrop Hospital Mineola, NY (after a brief illness). At the time of her death, she was a resident of Mineola, NY. She was born on February 14, 1922 to Joseph and Amy (Chaplin) Ryan.

MaryAnn grew up on Long Island, living in Mineola, Williston Park, and Hempstead. She attended

Mineola High School. After high school, she worked at a Fanny Farmer Candy Shop. A coworker told her that her brother had just joined the Army to fight in the War and would MaryAnn want to write to him. She did, and on December 10, 1942, she and Christian Rohrbach married in Hicksville, NY. After the War, they bought a home in Hempstead, NY where they raised 4 children. When the children were old enough, MaryAnn went to work in the Admissions Office at Nassau Hospital.

MaryAnn was preceded in death by her husband, Christian, in 1978; her daughter, Margaret Wray, in 2004; and her siblings, Ruth (Ryan) Lambert, Josephine (Ryan) Calastino,

William Ryan, George Ryan, and Ellen (Ryan) Grogan. She is survived by her son, Christian (and Kathleen Smith) Rohrbach of Poughkeepsie, NY, daughter, Mary (and Donald) Schleich of Freeport, NY, son, James (and Stacy) Rohrbach of Washington, DC, 8 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, niece Cathy Katz, as well as many other nieces and nephews, their children and grandchildren, friends and neighbors.
