“ Debbie Zagaja posted a condolence Mary was a special kind of lady. Tough yet compassionate. I learned a lot from her when I first became a police officer in Freeport, in 1986. She was the Matron for the department and I watched as she interacted with female prisoners and my male coworkers. She always had a smile on her face and words of wisdom - or words of sarcasm, when appropriate. She was so loved by the guys back then. It was so nice to see the slideshow today of the "other" Mary - outside of the police department. She was such a beautifully dressed woman and that smile was in every picture. What nice memories.

“ Amy Plympton Fortunato posted a condolence Dearest neighbors, family, friends - we are so grateful to know you and love you for all these years. We'll miss 'Nanny Cop' but glad you shared your faith with her so we have the hope that she trust Jesus for salvation. "For God so loved the world that He gave his only Son that whosoever believes in Him, will not die, but live forever!" John 3:16 What a wonderful lady and neighbor. Our families are together forever! Sad for your loss - glad we have each other!

“ JoAnn Laricos Zarnoch posted a condolence Mary and my Mom , Felicia were cousins and we visited back and forth in north Freeport. There was always lots of laughter when we were all together. Mary, her personality and laughter will always be a big part of my life and I have many good memories from my childhood , thanks to her. I am glad we were able to visit Mary in the little house on the canal she was living in. We live in the berkshires of Mass and wish I could have visited her more often. We did have our favorite eggplant together last time we visited . She will always be in my heart. xxxx

“ Anthony and Amy Russo posted a condolence Aunt Mary was always laughing and cutting up with adults and kids alike. As kids in the 70's, we thought it was so cool to see her working in "The Village" in downtown Freeport. I'm so glad I got to see Aunt Mary and take her and Bob to the Nautical Mile for lunch. Great memories!
