“ Mary Beth Mahoney posted a condolence I will always cherish my memories of Uncle Maurice. When I was a very little girl, he would swing me around by my arms, until a worried Great Aunt stopped the fun! He was always upbeat and had a great laugh, as my brother Jim has said. I could discuss any subject with him and always get an honest answer. I will miss not being able to email Brooklynbums anymore, that was his email address. He and Mary were a great team. I admired their marriage very much. I will miss my uncle forever.

“ James Mahoney Jr. posted a condolence I was very very blessed to be his nephew. I'll never forget as a little boy his Wolf-man Radio impersonations that made me laugh, I thought he was the coolest adult around! I'll never forget his boisterous laugh. His laugh made me laugh MORE than whatever we were originally laughing at! Most recently, as I am raising my own son, he was the one who reminded me of the challenges I gave my dad as a very young man. My family and I will miss him greatly. The Mahoney's of Pennsylvania as we are called send there condolences.
