“ Howard Mock posted a condolence My Deepest Condolences to all the Family of Nancy. I have known her for many years and her whole family. Nancy was a beautiful Spirit of a woman who always gave of herself in many ways. I will miss her smile which she always gave and her caring ways. It was sad to see her suffering at her latter life. I hadn't seen her in a while because I too was am suffering from a physical ailment. May God give the gift of calmness to the family in this trying time. And remember the Blessings she gave to family and friends for many years. I will truly miss her. My Prayers to the Family.

“ Lillian Morrell posted a condolence Our deepest sympathy on the loss of your wonderful Mom. She was one of the sweetest, gentlest people I have known. I will never forget how kind she was to my mother over the years. Pearsall Ave is a wonderful place and she played a big part in making it that way. We are so sorry we are not in NY to be able to attend the services, but our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
