“ Jasondean Jasondean Paul and Christina gumas posted a condolence My grandfather nick was the kindest soul. He was there for me for everything when his son, my father dean passed away when I was 16 years old. He was the typical stern Greek dad but a softy underneath that olive skin shell. I will miss the times we shared talking about politics or slingshotting aicorns with my son using his homemade wooden slingshot. There wasn't anythink nick couldn't construct in his own nick way. He was a rock for his family his whole life. There was nothing he wouldn't do to help his family or complete strangers. He was an amazing man. Glad that myself, my partner Christina and especially my son Jasondean Paul were able to be a part of his story and life. He will forever be missed. A piece of all of us is with him as well as a little bit of nick in all of us...2j48g
