“ Norma Arce-Mondonedo posted a condolence Well, I don't know Norma's family but I wanted to share that I remember the very first time I met her. Norma overheard someone call out my name and walked toward me with a smile from ear-to-ear and said, "only the special few have that name. Hello, my name is Norma." We both had a good belly laugh. Since then, whenever our paths crossed, she always greeted me with a warm and beautiful smile while her eyes gleamed. Bendito Dios, what a shocker. A reminder to all to be kind and smile —when your time to journey over to the other side comes, those touched will never forget. My condolences to the family and her close friends. ~Rest in paradise, Norma.
