

Raymond J. Harty

June 9, 2017

Raymond James Harty, 93, of Coral Springs, FL and formerly of Hicksville, NY passed away on June 9, 2017. Born in Brooklyn, NY on May 22, 1924 to Thomas and Frances Harty, he left school at a young age to provide for his family after his father's untimely death. He joined the United States Marine Corps in December of 1942 and proudly fought during WWII in the Pacific theater. Upon his discharge from the military in November of 1945, Ray began a lifelong career with the New York Times for 51 years. He resided in Freeport and Hicksville, NY before settling in South Florida to be near his son and grandchildren. Ray was an incredibly humble and generous man. From a meager childhood, he worked hard to provide for his family and loved to spoil his grandchildren. He had a great sense of humor and in his spare time loved to play golf, spend time with family, read and watch the news. Ray was also a man of faith. He attended church daily in Hicksville until his mobility declined. Ray is survived by his son, Robert (Katie) Harty; step-daughter, Andrea Marchena; granddaughters, Payton, Rielyn, and Hayden Harty; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family who he loved dearly. He was preceded in death by his wife, Doris Harty, grandson, Christian Hope, and his three siblings. Family will receive friends on Thursday June 15 from 2 – 4 & 7 – 9 PM Funeral Mass Friday June 16th at Queen of the Most Holy Rosary RC Church, Roosevelt, N.Y. Interment Calverton National Cemetery

“ Barbara & Bob Wolfe posted a condolence Another of the Great Generation has left us to receive his reward for a full life, well lived. I'll miss knowing Uncle Ray and his special smile is no longer with us. He was a special man, an especially kind man. I remember vividly his trying to teach me how to hit a golf ball while we were in front of Muriel's house. I was a willing, but awkward student, and never did learn to play golf. My daughters, Donna and Tina, and I were able to visit him last week while he was in the hospital. It isn't often we get to say a last goodbye, but I am so grateful that I was able to say goodbye, and God be with you to Uncle Ray. One of my last joyful memories was dancing with him at Suzanne's wedding, and there we stole some private minutes together to talk quietly. My deepest condolences to Robbie and Katie, and his many wonderful nieces and nephews and grandchildren, who I know are greatly saddened by his passing and will miss him terribly.
