“ Our sincere condolences to the Gempel family and friends. Heaven has definately gained an angel. Mr. Gempel was our best neighbor for over 25 years. He was always busy working in his beautiful yard or on his car. But no matter how busy he was, he would stop whatever he was doing and sit to chit chat with my son. He was also my husband's little league coach many many years ago so my husband has know Mr. Gempel for a lifetime.

We lost our best neighbors when hurricane Sandy hit and his house of which he took so much pride in suffered an explosion and he and his sweet wife Jane were forced to move. We missed them terribly but very thankful that they survived the blast.

It's never easy to lose a loved one no matter what their age is. But he had a long beautiful life and his family is so lucky to have all the memories they shared with him. I know we cherish all of our memories with him...a man with a heart of gold!

R.I.P. Mr. Gempel. You will forever be in our hearts.

Much love,
Marilyn & Billy May & family
