He was born on September 25th, 1936. Richard grew up in Flushing NY, graduated from St. John's University, and was a longtime resident of Rockville Centre, NY. Richard served our country as a United States Navy Lieutenant and was designated a Naval Aviator on September 4th, 1962. He flew C-130's with the VR3 Transport Squadron and received an honorable discharge from the service on December 1st, 1973. “ I need to post one more message to you, Uncle Richard, so that I can get a blue candle to go along with the previous gold candle, representing the Navy colors. When the Army-Navy football game was being played yesterday, I knew Army was ranked #22 and was the favorite to win. But I was hoping Navy would pull off a victory for you. It was always fun sharing with each other our individual Naval Academy experiences and our time in the Navy, aviator vs submariner.

In the other message, I forgot to thank you for helping me all those years when I was struggling, and for encouraging me year after year when I changed my life. Your inspiration and confidence in me were vital to my recovery. By the way, our NAVY won the game! GO NAVY, BEAT ARMY! Miss you, Uncle Richard.

*Thanks for being a part of my life,
Bill*

“ Uncle Richard,

You were my favorite relative and a trusted, dear friend. I truly miss you already. You were a wonderfully insightful and caring man who was always ready to have fun. I will never forget traveling with you, Ana Maria, and my mom and dad to exciting places like Booth Bay, Maine and St. Simon's Island. I will never forget all the interesting conversations we used to share. I will never forget your passionate love of the New York Yankees, even though I was a Cleveland Indians fan. I will never forget how much my mom and dad loved being with you and Ana Maria. I will never forget how you were always an Irish gentleman and always a loving father to Rick and Kerri. I can't imagine life without being able to see you again and being able to reach out for your advice. Memories of you and your spirit for life will live in my heart forever. I wish I could be there with your loving family and friends at the funeral. Please tell my parents that I miss and love them, because I know you're with them now in heaven.

*With the deepest love and respect,
Bill Fazekas*
