“ Richie meant a lot to many of us in District Court. Each of us fortunate enough to have worked alongside Richie, picked up something about the law and how things work in court from him.

Now, I won't say everything he taught us was always right, but it always sounded good.

But Richie wasn't just about work. He gave us plenty of stories, laughs, and good times over the years. One funny memory is when we got Jim Sullivan a bike as a gift, and Richie rode it right through the clerk's office. We couldn't stop laughing.

If I had to describe Richie in one word, it would be "lovable." Everyone liked him. He was a good, honest guy, and we'll miss the smile he brought to our faces every day.

You'll always be remembered with love.
