“ Cynthia Brown-Moore posted a condolence I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.

“ Ned Edward Felder posted a condolence To: The Williams Family, I was stunned to learn of Cousin Richard's passing. I cannot seem to be able to grasp the sad news - it was so sudden to me. I am terribly sorry and share your grief. Richard has left a legacy of being an unusually hard-working honest man, who would go to extreme length to provide for his family. His life made your lives better. I give you my deepest condolences. You are very much on my mind and in my heart and prayers during this time of bereavement. I cannot grant the peace and comfort you seek, but we know who can, don't we? Trust and believe in Him.
With profound sympathy,
Cousin Ned Edward Felder

“ *Gail Lambert posted a condolence To My Cousins
You have our deepest sympathy with the loss of your father. Your father was loving, kind, soft spoken and always had a smile on his face that would light up a room. Today, I am asking our Heavenly Father to keep you and our family in his loving arms as we celebrate uncle Richard's life. May God bless you and bring you guys closer so that you can be a support to each other during this time. Love you all,
Your Cousin Gail, Nefertari and Azikiwe*
