“ Jill Schroeder posted a condolence I am so fortunate to have had Rob as my “brother” for so many years. He always made me laugh, whether it be the best of times, or worst of times. Rob was always there to pitch in whenever our family needed some handyman work done, or an extra family car, or if Christine needed to be over served some wine on a Christmas Eve! Rob will be sorely missed by so many, but joining the rest of the clan up there. Rest In Peace my brother, til we meet again.

“ Kenny K posted a condolence I met Bob back in the summer of 2009. A short time had passed when I realized what kind of person he was. He was selfless, down to earth, intelligent and many other positive attributes that can fill a page. Over the years I looked to Bob for fatherly advice in regards to life, career and everything in between. Always quick to offer great advice followed by a laugh. If I didn't have a father there's no one else I would rather pick to be my father than Bob. He will be missed tremendously and never forgotten. Thank you for everything Bob.
Your friend,
Kenny

“ Beth posted a condolence My 3 year old grandson lived across the street from Bob. Bob always had a wave and a kind word for him. Bob would stop to talk to Matty every time he saw him. Matty loved to watch out the window and wave and got so excited when Bob pulled in the drive. Thanks for making a little boys day always brighter.

“ Susan Schroeder posted a condolence Tracy, Gerald, Todd, Chris, Patrick - I am so very sorry for your loss. I know how much Uncle Rob will be missed. He was devoted to his family. I remember him wearing that awful Santa costume one Christmas Eve at Patti's; I remember him smoking upstairs with Jeff at my wedding; I remember how happy he was the day he married Tracy. I remember him laughing and making others laugh. Our thoughts and hearts are with you. With much love from Susan, Adam and Ruby “ Carolynn Hansen posted a condolence My heart is broken. Shro came into my life nearly 30 years ago. He was my mentor, friend and spiritual leader. He always was honest, sincere and had a keen sense of humor. He gave of himself unselfishly supporting and encouraging so many to stand up for themselves and find serenity. He met and fell in love with my most cherished friend, Tracy. We went through the best of times and the worst of times as they say. But always with love and a sense of humor. He loved his family fiercely and always kept God close by. I am definitely a better person having known Shro. We will someday meet again and until then he will always be in my heart.

*Always,
Carolynn Hansen*
