“ Victor Babb posted a condolence From: Victor Babb To: Maggy his beautiful wife, son Danny, his family and friends. Rody has been a true loyal client of mine, a genuine and great friend for the last 36 years. His friendship was Eagle to me over and over again with kind words and strong arguments but we remained outstanding friends until the very end. We traveled together near and far also to his native Panama. Some of the last things I did for him was pick him up from the Doctor and to order Uber when I could not. He also insisted of me on having a special upside down cake and requested that I go with him back to Panama when he is feeling much better. He stated these words in 1998 when I launched my first book, and his wife Maggy did the catering in my backyard: THEY CAN'T STOP YOU! These words are simple but powerful and has motivated me until this day and forever. But our final conversation was a few weeks ago when he was dehydrated and I advised him to sip water all day from a bottle and he should be better. He was a Class Act and a movie star in his own right. He wrote the script, directed his own movie and was the STAR. He has enough time now to travel, eat upside down cake and drink all the water he needs and to know that HE has a true friend in me and a friend in Jesus. I am Going to deeply miss his arguments, his laughter, his smile, his company and his Great Friendship. I am praying for him and his family — LET PEACE BE STILL!
