“ Patti (Makofske) Erlandsen posted a condolence Deepest condolences to Allison and Amy and all of Steve's family and friends. I grew up across the street from Allison and Stephen and have many, many fond memories of all the mischief we got into as teenagers and of the many weekend evenings spent at their house smoking cigarettes and drinking Cokes. So very sorry for your loss.

“ Sean Cullinan posted a condolence Amy,
We are VERY, VERY sorry to learn of Steve's passing. While we were fortunate to meet Steve many years back as one of his clients, he also shared his special gifts in wrapping us into his friendship and good humor. We were just thinking of Steve last week as we continue to enjoy the fruits of his incredible and extensive handiwork at our house. He was without doubt the very best AV person we ever worked with, by a long shot. He treated our home like his very own, and it still shows.
We hope Steve is at peace now, and we wish you the very best, Amy, in this difficult time. You both will be in our thoughts and prayers.
Warm regards,
Sean and Sue Cullinan

“ JOSEPH RIZZO posted a condolence AMY, HOW STRONG YOU MUST BE. I HAVE KNOWN YOU AND STEVE FOR WHAT SEEMS LIKE FOREVER.WE HAVE ALL BEEN THROUGH SO MUCH GOOD AND SOME BAD IN OUR LIVES.WE ALWAYS SEEMED TO DO OUR BEST TO MAKE SURE THAT WE GOT TOGETHER WHENEVER POSSIBLE AND I ENJOYED EVERY MINUTE THAT WE ALL SPENT TOGETHER.STEVE WAS A LOYAL FRIEND WHO WOULD DO ANYTHING FOR A FRIEND IN NEED. I CONSIDER YOU BOTH MUCH MORE THAN FRIENDS, FAMILY IS HOW I FELT AROUND YOU BOTH. STEVE WILL BE SINCERELY MISSED BY MYSELF AND MANY OTHERS WHO'S LIVES HE HAS AFFECTED. I'M SURE HE IS AT PEACE NOW AND RESTING WITH AN ANGEL ON EACH SIDE OF HIM.
