Steven Patrick, born January 13, 1953, of Freeport, New York, passed away at the age of 73.

Steven spent many years working as a baker at Wonder Bread, a career he enjoyed before retiring. He was also devoted to serving his community, holding the role of Commissioner Chairman of the Freeport Housing Authority and working at the Freeport Recreation Center, where he was known for his commitment and steady presence.

Steven is survived by his son, Kerry Patrick, and Kerry's wife, Leah, as well as his grandchildren, Michael (age 10) and Elizabeth (age 7). He is also survived by his girlfriend and life partner, Phyllis Modeste, who shared companionship and support with him. Steven is further survived by his loving nieces, Jenelva and Shamona, and a multitude of cherished cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ruth Gilmore Patrick and Floyd Patrick; his sisters, Gail and Cheryl; and his brothers, Vernon and Gene.

A creative and thoughtful soul, Steven had a deep appreciation for music. He enjoyed writing his own compositions and playing samples from other artists on his keyboard. He also took pleasure in good food and great company, valuing time spent in conversation and shared moments.

Steven Patrick will be remembered for his dedication to his work, his service to the Freeport community, and the many connections he maintained throughout his life
