“ Damn... Tommy, there's many things I have forgotten in the last 35 years. My time living with you in Long Beach isn't one of them. I still can't do the beer and Captain Crunch thing in the mornings, but one day we'll give that another try. Tell Rusty I said hello, you better have a frisbee ready. Rest well friend. You're in good hands now. Much love.

“ Will miss you Tom
For the 30+ years I have been fortunate to know you,I could not ask for a better Brother in law. You were a great uncle to Kayla and Ava and a great friend to Diane and me.
I hope this finds you in a place with endless margaritas, 24 hour Rush music and back to back Mets and Giant Championships.

“ Well Tom it took me a while to put this out here. I will always cherish the good times we had from the trips together to Myrtle Beach and especially Savannah, as well as all the Sundays spent eating crack, as you referred to the wings at Shamrocks, and watching football. May you rest in peace now and always watch over everyone as we will always be remembering you. RIP BUDDY. Pete.

“ Tom and I were as close as brothers for the duration of our "extended " college experience. We were able to be at each others wedding, and talked over the years, albeit far too infrequently. The memories of the times we spent together are extensive, and cherished. He is beloved and will be missed. Bruce Mchugh
