“ I grew up with Tom in the Bay Colony and have so many memories I have no idea which to relate. One in particular comes to mind about Toms car after he had it painted by Earl Scheib. I don't remember what car it was, but I believe he had it painted a baby blue. We used to hang out behind Carvels Ice cream across from the high school. Tom had just had the car painted and we were hanging out and Jeannie hopped up & sat on the hood. The enamel paint had not fully hardened and the imprint of Jeannies jeans were in the paint until he sold the car. I have not been in touch and I regret that, we had some great times together in our youth. I will miss Tom and the world is a sadder place for his passing. My Love to everyone in this sad time. “ Tommy would come over on Sundays, say “hi Ben” to my dad, come in the kitchen yell “hi ma”, grab a big piece of Italian bread and dunk it in the pot of sauce. She’d just laugh. My dad built their fireplace, he loved that family. Good friends are hard to find. Thanks for the memory Tom. Rest in peace with your mom and dad 🙏🙏

We moved next door to Tom & Jeanne in 1979. Our families grew up together. We have so many great memories of sharing our ups & downs, through thick & thin & enjoying our young adult lives with the "Dips". Having a relationship for 40 years is a testament of true friendship.

May Tom rest in peace. He will forever be in our hearts. Farewell, our friend, until we meet again.

Love, Jean & Bruce Wiener

As long as I can remember it's been Tommy and Jeannie, always Tommy and Jeannie. And Tommy was a fellow redhead. This is heartbreaking and unexpected and my heart goes out to Jeannie and the entire family. May our Lord God comfort and strengthen all of you. With all my love, Alison Freeman, a high school friend. He will be missed. ❤️
