“ Joy Marie lit a candle Dear Grandma It was an honor to be your first born Granddaughter,. I will always remember how much you adored me and although our family displaced the times I talked or visited you just confirmed how much a Grandmothers love never goes away . It was an honor to be loved and to love you and it will always be cherished . Without you and Grandpa I wouldn't have my mother , my beautiful children Katie. Dawson , Zane and Finn and your first born Great Great Grandson Benjamin . I truly believe a piece of you will be with us always and in my heart of hearts I know that you are finally enjoying a peace you have never had an opportunity to endure . I will always remember your impeccable wardrobe with matching shoes , your organ playing ,, the smell of Cherry almond jergens , the kids table during the holidays , playing with Kristie in the back room,the plastic on the furniture and rugs but most of all the love that you and Grandpa shared . I love you Grandma . Always and forever.. Your Joy Marie

“ Katelyn moore posted a condolence Meeting her as a teenager, that I can remember, her looking at me saying my Katelyn, my girl. I walked her around with her in my arm. I love her so much. I saw her in my sleep telling me that she is happy. She's finally with great grandpa.
