“ When we were kids in the 60s, my Mom and Dad would take us to the Callahan's for BBQs. She was always a sweet lady, and they are together again!

“ Mary Impellizeri posted a condolence Vicky was a longtime member of the Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Stella Maris #822 here in Freeport. She was a very active member until recently. For many years she helped put together hundreds of bags during Thanksgiving to be given to those in need. I loved talking to her and visiting with her when she attended Mass at Our Holy Redeemer Church. Rest In Peace my friend and keep watch over all your CDA friends
